Holly Burrow

CEO & Founder

A serial entrepreneur, today Holly focuses on growing community engagement, guiding entrepreneurs to capital and business development to open the door for new start-ups to find success.

As a founder focused on serving founders, Holly is an innovative and creative solution provider that serves as a quality assurance layered over the work that the eqALL team does to deliver programs and entrepreneur support.

Holly has advised over 1,000 small business owners and has used that experience to build an organization that serves as solution architects to empower business support organizations, economic development teams and non-profits to improve the founder experience through access to resources and connections.
